ENNIS FARM SOLD To Michigan Man, Who Will Raise Hay on Its 300 Acres.

A. A. Ennis has sold his farm on Woodstock Hill, in the town of Brook-lyn, to C. H. Burton. The farm is one of the finest in this section, and has been in the Ennis family for many years. The stock is to be disposed of during this month. The new purchas-er comes to Brooklyn from Bear Lake, Mich., where he has been a successful farmer. His new purchase contains 324 acres of fine land, and much of it will be devoted to hay crops. Mr. Bunton relised great quantities of hay on his Michigan farm, and it brought less than half the amount that can be ob-
